DAY 5 MADRID

Breakfast at the hotel.

Free day in Madrid for shopping and have a walk in the historical city, its monuments as well as its gardens.

DAY 6 SEGOVIA

Breakfast at the hotel.

Departure to go to Segovia in the morning, at 90 Km far from Madrid.

Roman aqueduct

In December 1985, UNESCO included in its list of World Heritage Cities the "old town of Segovia and the Roman aqueduct." The reasons of this choice are numerous, such as the beauty of its setting, its environment, its buildings, trees and streets; definitely the decision was based precisely on all these values.

During the visit we can admire its Roman aqueduct which is one of the best works left by the Romans during their great empire. It was built to bring to Segovia the water from the Sierra.

The Cathedral of Segovia which can be admired from the Plaza Mayor. The Alcazar whose profile appears as an imaginary vessel over the Tajo with the ochre and blue colors of the Sierra.

At 11 km from Segovia there is "La Granja de San Ildefonso" where you can admire his palace, called the "Little Versailles" summer resort of the Kings of Spain in the past centuries as well as its spectacular gardens.

Return to Madrid on the afternoon and accommodation.
